letiring Teacher lets Resolution)f Appreciation

Hillsboro-In accordance with he standing policy of the Orange County Board of Education, Miss Rebecca Liner, a public school eacher in the schools of Hillsboro nd North Carolina for 37 years, vas retired from duty at the close by law. of the current school year.

At a session last week, the loard passed a formal resolution of appreciation for Miss Liner's idelity-to duty and faithful servces. Miss Liner, through whose larses have passed thousands of rimary students of this communty and the surrounding area durng her long tenure, had sought o continue teaching but the local committee and the county board ooth held fast to the previously innounced policy.

The resolution signed by Chairnan C. W. Stanford and Secreary G. P. Carr was as follows:

"Whereas, it is the policy of the Hillsboro Local Committee and Orange County Board of Educaion to retire teachers at age 65, "And, whereas, Miss Rebecca Liner has reached the age of 65,

"And whereas, Miss Rebecca Liner has served nobly and well in the public schools of Hillsboro and North Carolina for a period of 37 years;

"Be it resolved, therefore, that this Board go on record as praising Miss Rebecca for fidelity to duty and hereby expresses grateful appreciation on behalf of the students, teachers, principal, superintendent, and board members for her faithful services over a period of 37 years.

"It was moved by Kemp S. Cate, seconded by Harry P. Breeze, and carried, that a copy of the above resolution be sent to Miss Rebecca Liner and to the press, and that the resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Board of Education of Orange County."

SALES CLINIC POSTPONED

Hillsboro-The four-day Sales Clinic for personnel of local stores and business firms, originally scheduled to begin next Monday night at 7:30 o'clock, has been living outside the Hillsboro city postponed until June 9.

A conflict on the schedule of the instructor from the State Department of Public Instruction necessitated the postponement. The sociation. series is being sponsored by the Hillsboro Merchants Association.

No Candidates In Orange Report Campaign Costs

Not a single Orange County candidate for office in the May 31 primary filed the sworn statement of pre-primary expenditures and contributions by last Wednesday, the deadline, as required

There are 10 Democratic candidates in the May 31 primary.

State election laws required the candidates for county offices to tures and contributions with the clerk of Superior Court 10 days in 20 days after the primary.

Failure to comply with the law is termed a misdemeanor.

Clerk Edwin Lynch admitted that few Orange County candidates ever met the letter of the law in filing the statements of expenditures and contributions. He said he did not know of any Orange County candidate having ever been prosecuted for not filing the statements as required by law.

DRAFT BOARD TO CLOSE

The local draft board will be closed Friday, May 30 in observance of Memorial Day.

All other principals in the county system are expected to be back for next year.
